

WHO'S WHO WITH THE WESTERLY MORRIS
MEN
SCOTLAND, AUGUST, 1987

---

Squire Herb Nickel, 59 —

is an engineer at the Electric Boat Division of the General Dynamics Corp. in Groton. Besides being an original Westerly Morris Man and the third squire of The Westerly Men, Herb is known in Morris circles as a great Traditional Music singer. Ask him to sing a song! His wife Joan is with him on the 1987 tour.

Baqman George H. Utter, 65 —

first started English Country Dancing back in 1936 when he first learned what a set-for-six was in a summer dance group in North Stonington. He is an original Morris Man. He is co-publisher of The Westerly Sun, a 12,000 circulation daily newspaper.

Foreman-Musician Peter Leibert 46,

has been involved with Traditional Dance and Music since he was 4. He is a past squire of The Pinewood Morris Men and founder and first squire of the Westerly Morris Men 12 years ago. He calls dances and plays the melodian, concertina and pipe and taber throughout New England. He is professor of Art and Department Chairman at Connecticut College where his major field is ceramics.

Lee Boltz, 36,

Lee is an engineering supervisor and has been a member of The Westerly Morris Men for little over a year. He is into classical and folk music, rowing, cross-country skiing and Gilbert and Sullivan. When he was in the Navy he visited Western Pacific ports and including the Philippines. He was born and raised in California. "I collect interesting musical instruments," he says. His wife Julie is with him on the 1987 tour.

Norm Dudziak, 28,

is a senior design engineer at Electric Boat and has been with The Westerly Morris men for 3¼ years. He is an avid contra-dancer. He's a nature lover and a 1981 graduate of Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Wally Fenn, 66,

is a retired engineer and now a part-time computer consultant. He's an 11-year veteran with Westerly Morris. He was squire when the team first went to England. He calls himself a regular dancer and an apprentice musician. He plays the pipe and tabor and cornet and is working on the melodeon. His wife Carol is with him on the 1987 tour.

Kurt Hansen, 32,

is a Mechanical Engineer and a U. S. Navy diver who repairs and inspects US Navy ships all over the world. He has been on the Morris team for 2 years. His interests include running, hiking and cycling. His wife Beth is with him on the 1987 tour.

Allen D. Lawton, 31, —

Allen's been a Morris Man for 4½ years and is a chef in a local McDonalds. He graduated from the Univ. of R. I. in 1982 with a BA in Psychology; his hobbies include bicycling, photography, stamp collecting and folk and morris dancing.

Everett Munro, (Mac an Rothaich) 48 —

Everett is the Comptroller at Kaplan's Travel Bureau. "I've been a Morris Man since July 10, 1975; that's when I bought my bells!" He remarks, "Caisteal Folaiss'n a Theine!" (Castle Foulis in flames!) His wife Sara is with him on the 1987 tour.

Hal Walker, 37,

He is an environmental scientist working for the Environmental Protection Agency in a research lab doing studies on deep sea waste disposal. He was married a year ago to Kate Brady. After the team's last trip to England, he and Kate visited Edinburgh; she will be with us during this tour.

Phyllis Bevington, 57.

Phyllis is Joan Nickel's sister, Assistant Town Clerk of Chester and an accomplished artist. She's a great cook and wonderful gardner (great combination) and can sew anything that doesn't move. She was last in Scotland in 1960 during a heat wave.

Julie Boltz, 37,

is the wife of Lee Boltz and is a self employed caterer. She was born and raised in the Philippines. She married Lee and moved to California in 1973. She is a good cook and has a good sense of humor (considering the man she's married to). Her hobbies are skiing, swimming, rowing and contra-dancing.

Carol Fenn, 63,

is the wife of Wally Fenn. She is a homemaker and volunteer for the American Red Cross. She has two children and four grandchildren. She's into reading, walking, swimming and sailing. She was in England with the Morris Men in 1980 and has made trips to the Carribean. She has done some contra and country dancing. "I enjoyed hosting the Lothian Morris and the Jenny Geddes Dancers last year." she added.

Beth Hansen, 33, is a library assistant at Connecticut College. She is a new member of Mystic Garland, a women's dance team specializing in morris, clogging and garland. Interests include needlework, hiking and being outdoors. This is her first trip. She'll especially miss her two Siamese cats.

Sara Munro, 40, wife of Everett Munro is manager of Studio 33, a custom framing shop in New London. She also has her own business as a skin consultant for Jafra Cosmetics, a direct selling firm. She enjoys couponing and refunding, knitting and bird watching and being a Morris Groupie. She is also an avid cat lover.

Joan H. Nickel, 60,

is the wife of Herb Nickel. She has been with the Mystic Garland, Morris and Sword for 8 years and is presently the group's squire. This September she will be performing at the Eistedfod Festival at the Southern University of Massachusetts in Dartmouth. She likes gardening, bird watching, skiing and folk music.

Kate Brady Walker, the wife of Hal Walker is a registered nurse who enjoys obstetrics. She has recently opened a practice called Monitrice Inc. which provides emotional and physical assistance to the woman and her partner in labor and delivery. Kate enjoys Contra dancing, as well as almost any activity outdoors. She and Hal are in the middle of deisning and building their home.
